New Year...New Website!

As I'm sure you are all aware we have had a new website in place for about 4 months. This site was prematurely released and has since undergone a serious renovation. To ring in the New Year we now have the new site up and running! The content has been replaced and we are improving the optimization.

Thanks for the feedback and let us know what you think of our "new appearance."

Stay tuned for more details about our annual Orlando Sales and Marketing conference. It's just around the corner, so book your tickets now! This year we're going to have an exciting line-up with TWO FULL days of speakers that will cover topics of great interest to you and your business. We will have a focus on Internet marketing, SEO (if you don't know what it is you need to come to the conference!) social media, sales and our new products.

There is a full schedule and we will be announcing the details next week, so you'll be able to bring all your thought provoking questions and ideas for discussion. We're working to make this year better than ever at Dog Guard, and we're endeavoring to help you do the same. So come be a part of the excitement and education in Orlando as we kick off 2011 with loads of tools and ideas to help you tackle the challenges of the coming year.

Feedback from Google Listings:

Did anyone start the process for their Free Google Listing yet? Did anyone already have one? We know it's the Holiday's but when the Egg Nog settles we would love to know if anyone found it to be useful.

Also, a future message will have the same detailed instructions for a Bing Listing.

You can contact Dean Watkins if you have any questions at:

Thank you for your continued support and Happy New Year!
